I heard that google will ban your adsense account if you build too many autoblog.

How many google adsense account you use,

and how to prevent it

thank you

That is a myth. Even if true, it might happen with other auto blogging tools which would create just junk blogs. But with my software, your blogs are going to look more like being naturally updated and so there is no reason for Big G to ban you.

I have 2 accounts. I use only one primarily and the other one is just for standby just in case anything goes wrong in future. So the 1 account in all my 36 blogs, is doing fine for over 6 months now and the account itself is actually 2 years old.

Carty..
