

[HELP] Login Error at Auto Blogging Software

Posted by GrMarketer - 2011/07/13 11:17

Hi there all.

One picture is almost 1000 words!

When i try to connect with my google account from the blogspot Blogs i get the message that you can see in the image that i have attached.

What i did before i post here?

- 1) Checked the Firewall (windows only, don't have any other)
- 2) Restart the computer
- 3) Check Disk and restart again
- 4) Searched the Auto Blogging Software community for possible answers.

I really don't know what the problem, any help guyz?

This happens to some blogger accounts. Please try logging into your blogger account once and make a manual post on your blog. And then try adding to the software, tell me how it goes.

Carty..

Hmm interesting but i have more than one blog into my account..i should create a post at all of my blogs?

P.S Google has some problems with the blogger and we are still waiting for respond. Any chance that maybe this is happening thanks to google?

I still can't "Connect and get my Blogs".

I'm getting the same message. Yes i have create a new post at all of my blogs.

Please carty if it's easy for you..find me at Skype for faster responds.

Appreciate it.

You can find me on skype at: greekmarketer

Thanks

Some accounts have these problems. Try a different blogger account.

I have done this already to save time...i now just have to move the domain too.

P.S I'm a reviewer and i really enjoy your software and i would like to have a "peak" at the bonuses you are offering with Auto Blog Samurai like the templates, guides etc. No matter what is your answer i would like to know. I want to start promoting your product but i want to be reliable and honest with the bonuses too.

Talk Soon.
